

Singing Freedom in Zurich 4-5 Mai

with Igor Ezendam & Arianna Artioli

Weekend seminar 4-5 may 2019

Singing Freedom is about music, selfhealing, empowerment and soulful communication, a darshan of sound by an exceptional overtone singer, dutch Igor Ezendam and his brilliant italian partner Arianna Artioli. Their decade of touring with original musical seminars has touched the hearts and minds of many people along the way.

Igor's music is an example of the use of the voice as a therapeutic instrument and source of self discovery. His personal style of vocal harmonics, a pure and crystal clear sound developed over thirty years of experimentation, is capable of clearing the energetic body of old fears, stuck emotions and karmic weight.

Arianna's caring presence, poignant humor and emotional sensitivity help bring people back on track into love through truthful processing of old traumas. Together with Igor's passionate feedback and practical suggestions for improvement, being part of one of their retreats is a truly liberating experience.

Come and participate in this workshop and let Igor and Arianna hold space and give guidance for your blossoming! Workshop held in english.

He is a vocalist, voice-coach and deep process guide born in Amsterdam. He is inspired by Tuvan (Mongolian), Tibetan, Sufi, Nativ American, African and Aboriginal freestyle singers. His deep transformative work opens people into their true expression and „Self“-awareness with working elements from voice, aikido, systemic constellation work and more.

From his heart he comments:

„Sometimes it’s just wonderful to be on this planet, to grow to love, have good friends around, to be music, and help create the clan of the sensitive ones, people who can feel!“

Arianna Benedetta Artioli

She is a life student and a teacher of Hatha and Anukalana Yoga. In the „Learning Love Training“ with Krishnananda and Amana she deepened her passion working on the inner child and emotional wounds. She holds wisdom in hawaiian chants, sacred dances, flower remedies and empathic communication. She offers individual sessions of life coaching through Bach flowers, to empower, support healing and transformation.

From her heart she comments:

„It’s such a blessing to share this awakening journey with my beloved and hold space for people to blossom while singing and enjoying life together“
